	Ability Based Education (ABE) Statement:	At Tunxis Community College students are assessed on the knowledge and skills they have learned. The faculty identified the General Education Abilities critical to students' success in their professional and personal lives. In every class, students are assessed on course abilities, sometimes program abilities, and, in most classes, at least one General Education Ability. Students will receive an evaluation of the degree to which they have demonstrated or not demonstrated that General Education Ability.
	Catalog Course Description:	Surveys writing by various ethnicities and races in American culture, including but not limited to Native Americans, European immigrants, and African-, Hispanic- and Asian-Americans. This course examines how ethnic writing enables and resists assimilation, and how the literature of individual ethnicities underlies mainstream American literature and, at times, becomes part of the mainstream. The course also explores the history and sociology of immigration and multiculturalism.
	Topical Outline: List course content in outline format.	1. European immigration in the 19 th and early 20 th century 2. Voices from slavery 3. Spanish Southwest 4. Native Americans respond to the European onslaught

5. A voice of their own—the 20th century and the rise of the ethnic voice
 - A. Native Americans
 - B. African-Americans
 - C. Asian-Americans
 - D. Hispanics
 - E. India and the Mideast
