INTRODUCTION

Tunxis Community College (TCC) is committed to the safety and welfare of students, faculty, staff and visitors. No community is immune to crime or emergency situations. Campus safety is a shared responsibility. All must take responsibility for the safety and security of themselves, other, and their belongings.

The U.S. Department of Education’s Office of Postsecondary Education Handbook for Campus Safety and Reporting 2016 Edition reports: In 1990 Congress enacted the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990 (Title II of Public Law 101-542), which amended the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA). This act required all postsecondary institutions participating in HEA’s Title IV student financial aid assistance programs to disclose campus crime statistics and security information. The act was amended in 1992, 1998, 2000 and 2008. The 1998 amendments renamed the law the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act in memory of a student who was slain in her dorm room in 1986. It is generally referred to as the Clery Act and is in section 485(f) of the HEA.

The purpose of this publication is to:

- Provide an overview of campus security
- Share crime statistics required by the Clery Act
- Inform current and prospective students, staff, faculty, and visitors about the college’s policies and programs to keep them safe
- Share information regarding emergency preparedness and planning

Tunxis Community College distributes this publication annually to our campus community of students, prospective students, employees and prospective employees. This publication is available on the Tunxis website at <https://tunxis.edu/asr>.

Disclaimer: The Board of Regents (BOR) is the body empowered to make ‘policy’ for all constituent units under its jurisdiction. The college is not empowered to create its own policies. For Clery Act compliance the word ‘policy’ is used throughout this document. In the event of conflict with any existing BOR policy, BOR policy would supersede any college ‘policy’ listed below. Absent any BOR policy, college promulgated rules apply.

Security officers have the authority to ask persons for identification and to determine whether individuals have lawful business at the college. Security officers do not possess arrest powers.

Security officers patrol the campus daily. They patrol the buildings and grounds, assist members of the campus community with maintaining a safe learning environment, enforcing safety in parking lots with traffic and parking enforcement, maintaining building security by locking and unlocking rooms as necessary, assisting Early Childhood Center parents in the drop-off and pick-up of children, and general assistance to the community as needed. All criminal offenses will be investigated by the appropriate law enforcement agency. Tunxis Community College is a state agency. The State Police under the Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection have jurisdiction over the college and its satellite locations. The Farmington Police Department may investigate or assist the State Police with criminal offenses that occur on the Tunxis campus. The Bristol Police Department may investigate or assist the State Police criminal offenses that occur at the Bristol site, Tunxis @ Bristol. The prosecution of all criminal offenses that occur at both locations are conducted at the Superior Court of Connecticut. Non-criminal violations of college policy will be referred to the Dean of Student Affairs for review and action.

Counselors are encouraged to inform persons being counseled to report crimes to parties listed above. Academic advisors and counselors are required to report any crime revealed to them to the proper authorities. The College does not participate in a Voluntary Confidential Reporting program.

SECURITY AWARENESS PROGRAMS

Since March 2020 a majority of students have studied remotely. Given the environment, normal security awareness programs did not take place. The college focused on keeping students safe and healthy in the COVID-19 environment. Tunxis Community College addresses campus safety awareness through a variety of venues:

- Not Anymore (sexual violence education and prevention) online program.
- Student handbook
- Videos “Shots Fired” and “Flashpoint” available online 24/7

Pre-COVID-19 every October the College has hosted a Health Fair. Likewise, pre-COVID-19, the Criminal Justice Department hosts an annual Fair every spring with participation from numerous area police departments.

The common theme of any awareness program is to encourage students, faculty and staff to be aware of their surroundings, and to be responsible for their own security and the security of others.

CRIME PREVENTION PROGRAMS

The College does not offer formal programs regarding crime prevention.

POLICY STATEMENT ADDRESSING CRIMINAL ACTIVITY OFF CAMPUS

Criminal activity off campus is monitored and recorded by the local law enforcement agency as follows:

- Farmington Police Department (Farmington Campus)
- Bristol Police Department (Tunxis@Bristol)
- Connecticut State Police (all locations)

Farmington Police	911 or 860-675-2400

The College enjoys close working relationships with the State Police, Farmington and Bristol Police when violations of federal, state or local laws are reported. This cooperative team approach addresses situations as they arise as well as future concerns. Crime statistics from the various off campus sites are gathered yearly and included in the campus crime statistics portion of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics. TCC does not have any off-campus locations of student organizations recognized by TCC. TCC has neither on-campus nor off-campus housing facilities.

POLICY FOR PREPARING THE ANNUAL DISCLOSURE OF CRIME STATISTICS

The procedures for preparing the annual disclosure of crime statistics including reporting statistics to Tunxis Community College obtained from the following sources:

- College Incident Reports
- College Security Reports
- Evening Administrator Reports
- Daily Crime Log
- Campus Security Authorities
- Town of Farmington Police
- City of Bristol Police
- State of Connecticut Police

A written request for statistical information is made on an annual basis to the Chief Executive Officer, College Deans and Campus Security Authorities. The college crime statistics along with the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics are gathered, compiled and reported by the Office of the Interim Dean of Academic and Student Affairs.

An email is sent to every enrolled student and employee on an annual basis. The information contained in the email includes a brief summary of the contents of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics, and the address for the web site where the report can be found online. Hard copies are distributed around campus at the locations listed in the Introduction or requested from the Dean of Student Affairs.

CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITIES

Federal law defines four categories of Campus Security Authorities or CSA's:

- Campus police department or a campus security department;
- Individuals who have responsibility for campus security;
- Any individual or organization to which students and employees should report criminal offenses;
- An official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities

At Tunxis Community College, the following departments, offices or individuals are identified as CSA's. The list of individual employees may be found on page 33:

- Chief Executive Officer
- All members of the CEO's cabinet
- Counselors
- Director of Student Activities
- Chair, Behavioral Intervention Team
- Chair, Crisis Management Team
- Deputy Title IX Coordinator
- Student Advocate
- Director of Facilities
- Coordinator, Continuing Education
- Campus Resource Team Members

The reporting crimes and other emergencies section on page 5. When a Campus Security Authority reports a crime to the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs the Dean reviews the report, and contacts the necessary authorities. This may involve campus resources such as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Student Advocate, Director of Facilities or others as needed. The Dean would contact either the Farmington, Bristol or Connecticut State Police for investigation and resolution. The report is kept on file in the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs. If there is a reportable crime under the Clery Act, it is included in the Annual Security Report. All crimes are reviewed so that steps can be taken to ensure the college has a safe learning environment.

TIMELY WARNINGS

As required by the Clery Act, “timely warnings” will be provided to the community in the event of a reported criminal situation that constitutes an ongoing or continuing serious threat to the TCC community. A timely warning will be issued for crimes that occur on the three locations listed under geography on page 4 when a crime is:

- Reported to Campus Security Authorities listed on page 33 or local police authorities; and
- Considered by TCC management (listed below) to represent a serious or continuing threat to students and employees

The decision to issue a timely warning will be based on the following factors:

- The nature of the crime
- The continuing danger to the campus community
- The possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts

The following employees may issue a timely warning:

Chief Executive Officer	Interim Dean of Academic Affairs
Associate Dean of Faculty	Director of Facilities

The timely warning will contain all information that would promote safety and aid in the prevention of similar crimes. The warning may be issued through the use of a variety of sources which may include, but are not limited to, the means listed under Public Information Notifications listed on page 32.

TCC has sent letters to the Farmington, Bristol & State police requesting their cooperation in informing TCC about crimes reported to them that may warrant TCC issuing a timely warning. Timely Warnings & Emergency Notifications are discussed at the CEO’s cabinet meetings at least once per semester.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATIONS

Upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation that occurs on the campus that involves an immediate threat to the health or safety of Tunxis students or employees, TCC is required to immediately notify the campus community. Individuals can report an emergency in the same manner listed under Reporting Crimes & Other Emergencies on page 5. The notification may be issued through the same methods listed under Timely Warnings, above.

The following individuals may issue an emergency notification:

Chief Executive Officer	Interim Dean of Academic Affairs
Associate Dean of Faculty	Director of Facilities

An emergency notification differs from a timely warning in that:

- It has a wide focus on any significant emergency or dangerous situation
- It is an event that is currently occurring on or imminently threatening the campus
- It applies to on-campus situations
- It is initiated immediately upon confirmation that a dangerous situation or emergency exists or threatens.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE PROCEDURES

TCC will, without delay, notify the campus community of an emergency or dangerous situation. TCC will take into account the safety of the campus community and determine what information to release about the situation, and begin the notification process.

TCC would not immediately issue a notification for a confirmed emergency if doing so would compromise the efforts to:

- Assist a complainant/victim
- Contain the emergency
- Respond to the emergency
- Otherwise mitigate the emergency

TCC tests the emergency response and evacuation procedures at least annually. Training is through SUNY online portal. These tests include drills, exercises and follow-through activities. They are designed for evaluation of emergency plans and capabilities. Tests will include measurable goals. They include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Technological tests of the 911 system, myCommNet Alert, and group paging system.
- Tabletop drills by the Crisis Management and Behavioral Intervention Teams
- Departmental and individual classroom drills to discuss how students, staff and faculty in particular areas would respond to various emergencies.
- Campus-wide exercises to test student, faculty & staff response to active shooter, evacuation, shelter in place and other emergency situations.
- Having Farmington, State, Bristol or present to provide feedback and suggestions to improve campus response
- Walk-through's of the campus for fire, police and other first responders

TCC prefers announced drills to avoid classroom disruption and unnecessary stress on individuals who have strong reactions to drills. However, TCC reserves the right to unannounced drills to ensure the college's emergency response protocols are sufficient. All drills, tests and exercises are properly assessed so that TCC's response efforts may be improved and enhanced.

TCC will document each test. The information will be retained by the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs. The file will contain a description of the exercise, the date the test was held, when it started & when it ended and whether it was announced or unannounced.

1. How can an individual report an emergency? The procedure is listed on page 5 in the General Procedures for Reporting a Crime or Emergency .
2. The process by which TCC will confirm that a significant or dangerous situation exists:
 - a. The following individuals may issue an emergency notification:

Chief Executive Officer (CEO)	Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs
Associate Dean of Faculty	Director of Facilities

The relationship among the four offices. The Associate Dean of Faculty reports to the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs. The Interim Dean and Director of Facilities report to the CEO. The CEO oversees all emergency procedures. In his absence or at his discretion, he may delegate emergency operations to the Interim Dean, Director of Facilities or Associate Dean depending who is on campus at the time of the emergency.

- b. These employees may make the determination of an emergency situation on their own if time is of the essence, or they may consult with others, if time allows. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

Police – Farmington, Bristol or State	Board of Regents
Allied Universal Security Team	Fire – Farmington or Bristol
Farmington Valley Health District

3. The procedures TCC will use to immediately notify the campus community upon the confirmation of an emergency are listed in the Public Information Notifications on page 32.
4. The content, and how much of it is to be shared with the broader community, of the notification will be determined by the employees listed in Section 2(a) above, in consultation with the resources listed in Section 2(b).
5. Employees listed in section 2(a) will initiate the notification. The Director of Marketing & Public Relations will update the college’s webpage, media notifications and social media accounts. Marketing staff will update the college’s hallway monitors. Broadcast messages over the college phones may be made by any of the employees listed below as well as all employees and student workers trained to work in the Welcome Center. Any authorized employee, or security guard, would put notices on college doors– if time allowed and doing so would not endanger the guards or employees. Only the following employees are authorized to send notifications out via myCommNet Alert, which includes text, voice & email messages to the entire TCC population:

Chief Executive Officer	Campus Administrative Lead
Co-Chairs, Crisis Management Team	Regional HR Manager, North-West Region
Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs	Evening Administrators
Regional Director of Institutional Research, North-West Region

6. The Chief Executive Officer or marketing department would disseminate information to the larger community in conjunction with the sources listed in Section 2(b).
7. TCC will continuously assess the situation and provide updates as warranted and notify the community when the emergency has passed.
8. The TCC campus is small. All segments of the population will be notified of an emergency or dangerous situations. TCC does not segment emergency notifications to particular groups or areas on campus.

EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Emergency response procedures and egress routes are posted across campus in hallways, classrooms and offices. In the event of an emergency, necessitating the evacuation of the building, do the following:

- Evacuation is mandatory. Leave immediately.
- Consider individuals with disabilities.

If possible, stay with the person until help arrives. If the person must be left unattended, notify emergency personnel immediately.

POLICY ON SECURITY OF AND ACCESS TO CAMPUS FACILITIES

TCC does not have campus residences. During business hours, Tunxis Community College will be open to students, employees, parents, contractors and guests. Employee access to the college off hours is granted with the written permission of the Chief Executive Officer. Students are not permitted access to the buildings when the college is closed. Security and access concerns are addressed by the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs and Director of Facilities, Maintenance personnel, in addition to other appropriate personnel when necessary.

Allied Universal Security provides contracted security. During operating hours guards patrol the campus, monitor the parking lots and ensure the security of the TCC facility. Allied Universal Security monitors the campus to make sure individuals are acting appropriately and responsibly. They are empowered to approach individuals to offer assistance or question individuals acting in a suspicious manner. Allied Universal Security is also a presence on nights and weekends ensuring that buildings are secured and state property is secured and maintained.

Facilities staff ensure that lighting is appropriate, walkways are clear and accessible, and that hallways and stairwells are well lit and accessible. Facilities, custodial and security staff ensure that the campus, including buildings, classrooms and offices are opened when necessary and secured when not in use. Access to rooms is given only to authorized individuals. TCC must balance being an open, public institution with ensuring the safety of all individuals on TCC property, ensuring the proper safeguards are in place to protect TCC students, staff, faculty, guests, property, equipment and technology from criminal acts.

POLICY ON DRUGS AND ALCOHOL IN THE COMMUNITY COLLEGES

Tunxis Community College has a zero tolerance policy on the possession, use or sale of drugs and alcohol on campus in accordance with Board policy on drugs and alcohol, listed below. The policy may also be accessed as link on the college's website Consumer Information • Tunxis Community College. It can also be found in the Student Handbook here Student-Handbook.pdf \(tunxis.edu\).

DRUGS & ALCOHOL IN THE COMMUNITY COLLEGES

The BOR/SCSU Student Code of Conduct prohibits the use, possession, sale or distribution of alcoholic beverages, except as expressly permitted by law and CSCU regulations. The Student Code of Conduct may be found here: RESOLUTION \(ct.edu\)

The Board recognizes that education regarding alcohol and substance abuse is an appropriate and even necessary part of contemporary college life. Since the unauthorized use of controlled substances, in addition to the potential harmful effect it may have on students and employees, is contrary to state and federal law and regulation, it must be prohibited in any college activity, on or off the college campus.

Although the conditions of alcohol and drug dependency may be considered disabilities or handicaps under state and federal law and regulation and Board of Trustees' policy, and employees and students will not be discriminated against because they have these disabilities, all students and employees are considered to be responsible for their actions and their conduct.

These provisions shall apply to all colleges, including Tunxis Community College, under the jurisdiction of the Board:

1. No student or employee shall knowingly possess, use, distribute, transmit, sell or be under the influence of any controlled substance on the college campus or off the college campus at a college-sponsored activity, function, or event. Use or possession of a drug authorized by a medical prescription from a registered physician shall not be a violation of this provision.
2. All colleges shall develop and enforce policies regarding the sale, distribution, possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages on campus, subject to state and federal law. Consistent with previous Board policy, the consumption of alcoholic beverages on campus may be authorized by the C.E.O. subject to the following conditions, as appropriate:
 - a. When a temporary permit for the sale of alcoholic beverages has been obtained and dram shop act insurance has been purchased;
 - b. When a college permit has been obtained;
 - c. When students bring their own beverages;
 - d. When alcoholic beverages are provided by a student organization and no fee is charged for attendance or for said beverages
3. All colleges shall provide educational programs on the abuse of alcohol and other drugs and referral for assistance for students and employees who seek it. Colleges are encouraged to establish campus wide committees to assist in development of these programs in response to particular campus needs and identification of referral resources in their respective service planning regions.
4. This policy shall be published in all college catalogs, faculty and staff manuals and other appropriate literature.
5. Failure to comply with this policy will result in invocation of the appropriate disciplinary procedure and may result in separation from the college and referral to the appropriate authorities for prosecution (Adopted November 20, 1989)

Tunxis Community College's standards of conduct follow Public Law 101-226, the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act. The standards of conduct prohibit unlawful possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs or alcohol by students, employees or visitors on the college campus or at college activities. Any person knowingly and unlawfully possessing, using, transmitting, selling or being under the influence of any dependency producing drug or alcohol on campus or at any college sponsored activity or event may be subject to disciplinary action.

The use of alcohol at any college activity on or off campus is prohibited unless the C.E.O. approves prior authorization. The C.E.O. has established the following procedure regarding requests for the serving of alcoholic beverages at college functions:

1. Any request to serve alcoholic beverages must be consistent with the Board of Trustees for Community-Technical Colleges' Policy 4.15, "Drugs & Alcohol Policy in the Community Colleges."

2. The request must be submitted in writing to the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs at least four (4) weeks in advance of the event.
3. If the sale of alcohol is being solicited, the request must demonstrate that a temporary permit for the sale of alcoholic beverages will be obtained and dram shop act insurance will be purchased.
4. A paragraph in the request must describe how alcohol will be made available only to legal age students and/or guests. This includes students bringing in their own alcoholic beverages, or beverages being provided free when purchased by a student organization or other group.
5. The request must include a plan for a visible educational program display or presentation urging responsible drinking of alcoholic beverages during the event.
6. Once the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs has reviewed the request for all necessary compliance, the request will be forwarded to the C.E.O. for final decision. Note: under no conditions will alcoholic beverages be purchased for consumption with monies from the General or Operating funds of this College.

The possession, use and sale of alcohol on the TCC campus is prohibited, unless the above procedures and protocols have been met. TCC enforces state laws relating to underage drinking within its purview. For situations beyond the college's authority, TCC would contact the Farmington, Bristol or State Police.

The possession, use and sale of illegal drugs on the TCC campus is prohibited. TCC enforces federal and state drug laws within its purview. For situations beyond the college's authority, TCC would contact the Farmington, Bristol or State Police.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL EDUCATION

The Counseling Office, Student Government Association and the Office of the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs offer programming and resources for students and employees. Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is a professional, free and confidential service for employees that is equipped to handle drug and alcohol issues that employees may experience.

Every October the college offers screenings to increase mental health awareness & wellness & promote mental & emotional wellness. The college has 'beer goggles' which are present at on campus events to demonstrate the impairment alcohol has on coordination. In addition, the college has had the police on campus demonstrating the impact of driving drunk. Students have found the beer goggles and police demonstrations very enlightening. The Counseling Office provides brochures on tables outside its office on various topics, including alcohol and drug abuse. Student Government owns a video game that can be used in conjunction with the beer goggles. The college regularly schedules events to mark:

- January - National Drug & Alcohol Facts Week Tabling
- April – National Alcohol Screening Day

Students who share with counselors that they are struggling with drug and/or substance abuse addiction are referred to outside agencies for treatment. Resources on alcohol and drug abuse are posted on the Counseling webpage. Free alcohol screenings are offered online and by appointment every semester.

SEXUAL ASSAULT PREVENTION AND RESPONSE

Individuals who feel they are the victim of any sexual offense are urged to file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator and the Connecticut State Police.

Deputy Title IX Coordinator	Charles Cleary	860-773-1302
Student Advocate	Kelly Mann	860-773-1636

All college employees are mandated reporters. Employees are required to completed a reporting form and submit it to the Title IX Coordinator. This form must be submitted even if a student accidentally discloses an incident of sexual misconduct. The primary goal is to provide support to a complainant of sexual misconduct.

When a student or employee reports to TCC that the student or employee has been a complainant of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, TCC will provide the student or employee with a written explanation of the student’s or employee’s rights and options for available assistance in how to request changes to academic, transportation and working situations and protective measures. These accommodations/protective measures are provided if the complainant requests them and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the complainant chooses to report the crime to local law enforcement. The college is obligated to comply with reasonable requests for changes. The Deputy Title IX Coordinator in conjunction with legal will determine what measures to take.

Complainants of sexual offenses should be assured the college will provide resources, including but not limited to treatment through local emergency services and police assistance.

TCC employs the following resources and educational programs to promote the awareness of rape, acquaintance rape, hand other forcible and non-forcible sex offenses. This list also includes events TCC has either hosted or some trainings faculty and staff have attended about sexual violence.

- Campus Resource Team, listed on page 31, chaired by the Deputy Title IX Coordinator/Dean of Student Affairs.
- TCC is an active member of the CT College Consortium to End Sexual Violence (CCCESV).

- The Counseling Office regularly has counselors from CT Alliance to End Sexual Violence visit campus to meet with, advise & counsel students on the topic of sexual violence.
- TCC complies with Conn. Gen. Stat. § 10a-55m (f). This requires all higher education institutions, annually beginning October 1, 2015, to submit a report to the Connecticut General Assembly's Higher Education Committee that includes, for the immediately preceding calendar year, information concerning sexual assault, stalking, and intimate partner violence. The report is available from the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs/Deputy Title IX Coordinator.
- TCC actively works to engage our students, staff and faculty in efforts to combat sexual violence.
- New employees are given copies of all relevant policies and are required to complete various trainings, including Mandatory Reporter training.
- All students are required to complete the online program 'Not Anymore.'
- Pre-COVID the college has recognized Domestic Violence Month by displaying the Clothesline Project, displaying t-shirts from complainants of sexual assault & violence.
- Pre-COVID the college also has displayed Faces of Survival
- Students and employees participate in Denim Day every April
- Safe and positive options for bystander intervention include the following:

 - Listen to your gut feelings.

Individuals who feel they are the victim of any sexual offense are urged to file a complaint with the Deputy Title IX Coordinator and the Connecticut State Police. Complainant/victims may decline to notify such authorities. Complainant should seek immediate medical assistance as there may be internal or external injuries and may need treatment for disease or infection. Physical evidence of a sexual assault, which includes but is not limited to hair and body fluid transfer, is highly perishable and all efforts should be made to preserve it. This may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred. A complainant of a sexual assault should not wash or change clothing until instructed by law enforcement or medical personnel. Complainants have options regarding involvement of law enforcement authorities, including declining to notify such authorities or have assistance by the campus with law authorities. Complainants should discuss options with the Deputy Title IX Coordinator.

The procedure to report or disclose sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating or intimate partner violence or stalking is as follows:

1. Report the incident (to the Deputy Title IX Coordinator) ccleary@tunxis.edu
2. Meet with Deputy Title IX Coordinator and Student Advocate kmann@tunxis.edu
3. Meet with a Student Affairs Conduct Officer
4. Conduct Officer investigates
5. Sanctions are determined
6. Request to Chief Executive Officer for review

Every complainant has the right to:

- Be present, equal opportunity to present witnesses and evidence
- An adequate, reliable and impartial investigation of the complaint
- Be notified of the time frame within which the investigation will be conducted
- Be notified of the right to appeal, if any – both complainant and respondent entitled to same rights
- Have the complaint decided by using a preponderance of the evidence – more likely that the sexual harassment or violence occurred
- Be notified in writing of the outcome
- Know sanctions imposed when they directly relate to the harassed student including restraining orders, suspension, transfers to other classes

The disciplinary procedures used by TCC for students regarding sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking are outlined in the Appendix attached to the end of this report. The type of proceeding would be based on the circumstances of the allegation. This lists the Policy on Student Conduct, including sanctions and additional hearing procedures for sexual misconduct cases as well as the following elements:

- The standard of evidence
- Sanctions
- A prompt, fair and impartial process
- The training will be conducted by officials annually trained
- Provide respondent & complainant with the opportunity to have others present
- Not limit the choice of advisor
- Require various elements in writing to both the complainant and the respondent

The disciplinary procedures for employees regarding sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking would be dictated by the severity of the charges, the bargaining unit the employee is in, consultation with HR, legal and law enforcement officials. A complaint may be filed by emailing HR wbovia@tunxis.edu or the Deputy Title IX Coordinator ccleary@tunxis.edu. The steps and anticipated timelines would be set by HR. Complaints regarding employees may be directed to the Deputy Title IX Coordinator or HR at email above. The type of proceeding would be based on the circumstances of the allegation. The responsible decision maker would be HR in conjunction with the college Chief Executive Officer. Sanctions can include a warning, mandatory training or up to and including termination, in addition to any criminal charges. The proceedings will include a prompt, fair, and impartial process from the initial investigation to the final result. It will be conducted by officials who receive annual training on the issues related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking, as well as how to investigate and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability. Training is through SUNY online portal. The complainant and the accused have the same opportunity to have others present during institutional disciplinary proceedings, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by the advisor of their choice in accordance with the respective collective bargaining agreement. The college will simultaneously notify, in writing, both the accuser and the accused of any institutional disciplinary proceedings that arise from an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The procedures for appeal for both the complainant and the accused would be dictated by HR in accordance with the respective collective bargaining agreement.

The Deputy Title IX Coordinator will offer the complainant written notification of a range of protective measures, including assisting the complainant in notifying law enforcement authorities, if the complainant chooses. No contact orders should be submitted to the Deputy Title IX Coordinator. The college does not issue orders of protection; the college complies with the legal requirements of no contact orders. Other measures may include class changes, requesting accommodations for classwork and exams, referral to counseling services and working with the complainant to aid recovery. The Student Advocate will work with the respondent to ensure due process.

All college employees are mandatory reporters. Employees do not have the option of declining to notify authorities once the complainant has divulged information requiring notification. Complainants may obtain a forensic examination at one of the hospitals listed SAFE on page 29. Completing a forensic examination does not require the complainant to file a police report. Having a forensic examination will help preserve evidence in case the complainant decides at a later date to file a police report.

The Deputy Title IX Coordinator will work with the Interim Dean of Academic & Student Affairs (if it is not the same employee) to ensure the complainant's rights under orders of protection, 'no contact,' or restraining orders are protected applicable to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. The decision will be made by both employees in consultation with legal or police. Such measures are confidential to the extent that they would not impair the ability of TCC to provide the accommodations or protective measures. The college will inform complainants before sharing personally identifying information that the college believes is necessary to provide an accommodation or protective measure.

TCC Human Resources and TCC's Deputy Title IX Coordinator will provide written notification to students and employees about existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy and legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, financial aid and other services for complainants on campus and within the community.

TCC will provide written notification to complainants about options for available assistance how to request changes to academic and campus working situations. TCC does not have residences, and students are responsible for their transportation to and from campus. TCC will try to assist students with these issues to the extent the college is able.

Complainants are urged to seek counseling and emotional assistance. Counseling services can be initiated through the College's Counseling department. Off-campus resources are listed on page 30. The college also has a Campus Resource Team. This consists of Tunxis employees, state and local resources who assist the college in responding to incidents of sexual violence. The team members can be found on page 31.

The college will make every feasible effort to preserve the confidentiality of and prevent the disclosure of the identities of the parties involved in a sexual misconduct matter. However, information regarding alleged sexual misconduct must be handled in accordance with applicable state and federal laws. Individuals should understand, for example, the under conditions of imminent harm to the community, the college may be required by federal law to inform the community of the occurrence of the incident/s of sexual misconduct. The Deputy Title IX Coordinator will inform the person requesting confidentiality if the college cannot ensure confidentiality.

Clery Act crimes must be disclosed. Complainants are assured that the daily crime log, annual security report and other documentation available to the public will not contain personally identifying information about the complainant.

TCC will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged complainant of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in Section 16 of Title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by such institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such a crime or offense. If the alleged complainant is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such complainant shall be treated as the alleged complainant for purposes of this paragraph. TCC will disclose results upon written request to a complainant's next of kin in cases where the crime resulted in the complainant's death.

TCC will provide both the complainant and the respondent with simultaneous written notification of any result, any change to the result, and when such results become final of any institutional disciplinary proceeding that arises from an allegation of dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. In this circumstance, the complainant does not need to make a written request.

TUNXIS COMMUNITY COLLEGE POLICY ON SEXUAL ASSAULT, SEXUAL HARASSMENT, DATING OR INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE OR STALKING

Tunxis Community College prohibits the crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking as those terms are defined for purposes of the Clery Act.

Sexual assault occurs when a person performs or compels another person to perform a sexual act or to have any form of sexual contact without consent. Rape is a specific sexual assault that involves any vaginal, oral, anal or urethral penetration with any body part or object without consent.

Sec. 10a-55m. (a) (1) “Affirmative Consent” means an active, clear and voluntary agreement by a person to engage in sexual activity with another person.

Lack of consent may result from the impairment of the victim which can include being under the influence of alcohol or other substances, or physical helplessness of the victim. Lack of consent may also result from intimidation to include physical force to silence the victim.

Attempted sexual assault or rape occurs when a person intends to commit the offense and engages in conduct that would lead to it. Prohibited conduct includes sexual assault, rape, attempted sexual assault, indecent exposure, voyeurism, or possession or distribution of illegal pornography. In addition, sexual assault and other sexual offenses are illegal under Connecticut General Statutes and may be prosecuted in a court of law.

Any behavior that constitutes a sexual offense under this policy, or other sexual offenses that are criminal in nature are subject to disciplinary action, whether or not criminal charges are filed.

Information about sexual violence and interpersonal violence is available on the college website here:

Public Act 21-184, An Act Requiring the Reporting of Incidents That Resulted in Serious Physical Injuries or Death at Institutions of Higher Education

Bristol Campus 2021

DEFINITIONS

Public Property: Public property (not residences or commercial property) immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus, but not owned or under the control of TCC. Crimes reported in this category are derived through contact with municipal police agencies when available.

Part 1 – Primary Crimes

These definitions are used in the Department of Education publications:

Murder/Non-negligent manslaughter: The willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.

Negligent Manslaughter: The killing of another person through gross negligence.

Aggravated assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting sever or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. Simple assaults are excluded.

Burglary: The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft. Attempted forcible entry is included.

Motor vehicle theft: The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle. A motor vehicle is self-propelled and runs on the surface and not on rails. Motorboats, construction equipment, airplanes, and farming equipment are specifically excluded from this category.

Arson: Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a private dwelling, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.

Note that only fires determined through investigation to have been willfully or maliciously set are classified as arsons. Arson is therefore the only Clery Act offense that must be investigated before it can be disclosed. If other Clery Act offenses were committed during the arson incident, the most serious is counted in addition to the arson.

DEFINITIONS

Part 2 – Alcohol, Drug & Weapon Violations

The Clery Act requires institutions collect statistics for violations of state law and or ordinances for drug, alcohol and weapons violations.

LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS

The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting: the manufacture, sale, transporting, furnishing, possessing of intoxicating liquor; maintaining unlawful drinking places; bootlegging; operating a still; furnishing liquor to a minor or intemperate person; using a vehicle for illegal transportation of liquor; drinking on a train or public conveyance; and all attempts to commit any of the aforementioned. (Drunkenness and driving under the influence are not included in this definition.)

WEAPONS POSSESSION

The violation of laws or ordinances dealing with weapon offenses, regulatory in nature, such as: manufacture, sale, or possession of deadly weapons; carrying deadly weapons, concealed or openly; furnishing deadly weapons to minors; aliens possessing deadly weapons; and all attempts to commit any of the aforementioned.

DRUG ABUSE VIOLATIONS

Violations of State and local laws relating to the unlawful possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing, and making of narcotic drugs. The relevant substances include: Opium or Cocaine and their derivatives (Morphine, Heroin, Codeine); Marijuana; synthetic narcotics (Demerol, Methadone); and dangerous non-narcotic drugs (Barbiturates, Benzedrine).

DEFINITIONS

Part 3 – Hate Crimes

The Clery Act requires institutions collect crime statistics for hate crimes associated with either the commission of a primary crime or the lesser offenses of larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation, destruction of or vandalism of a building or property.

HATE CRIMES

A Hate Crime is a criminal offense that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias against the victim.

Under the Clery Act, Hate Crimes include any of the following offenses motivated by bias: Murder and Non-negligent Manslaughter, Sexual Assault, Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Burglary, Motor Vehicle Theft, Arson, Larceny-Theft, Simple Assault, Intimidation, Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property. Larceny-Theft, Simple Assault, Intimidation, and Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property are included in your Clery Act statistics only if they are Hate Crimes.

Larceny-theft

The unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another.

Simple Assault

An unlawful physical attack by one person on another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury involving apparent broken bones, loss of teeth, possible internal injury, severe laceration, or loss of consciousness.

Intimidation

To unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual attack. Includes cyber-intimidation if victim is threatened on Clery geography.

Destruction, damage or vandalism of property

Dating Violence

Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party's statement with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Stalking

Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (1) fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or (2) suffer substantial emotional distress.

Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person's property.

Policy on Student Conduct

1. Student Code of Conduct Preamble (Approved 3/13/14; amended 4/17/14, 1/15/15, 6/16/16, 7/29/20: BR 20-104)

Academic institutions exist for the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students, and the general well-being of society. In line with this purpose, the Board of Regents for Higher Education ("BOR") in conjunction with the Connecticut State Colleges and Universities ("CSCU") has the duty to protect the freedoms of inquiry and expression, and furthermore, has the responsibility to encourage all of its members to develop the capacity for critical judgment in their sustained and independent search for truth.

CSCU has certain self-defined institutional values. Principal among these values is respect for the safety, dignity, rights, and individuality of each member of the CSCU Community. The opportunity to live, study, and work in an institution which values diverse intellectual and cultural perspectives and encourages discussion and debate about competing ideas in an atmosphere of civility is a basic component of quality higher education.

All members of CSCU must at all times govern their social and academic interactions with tolerance and mutual respect so that the students who pass through a CSCU door are enriched by these experiences and are prepared for full and enlightened participation in a multi-cultural society. Because of the BOR's and CSCU's commitment to principles of pluralism, mutual respect, and civility, certain activities are not acceptable on CSCU campuses. Acts of intolerance, of hatred or violence based on race, religion, sexual orientation or expression, disability, gender, age, or ethnic background are antithetical to the BOR's and CSCU's fundamental principles and values. It is the BOR's and CSCU's responsibility to protect our students' right to learn by establishing an environment of civility.

The disciplinary process is intended to be part of the educational mission of CSCU. Student disciplinary proceedings are not criminal proceedings and are not subject to court rules of procedure and evidence.

Introduction:

This Student Code of Conduct (hereinafter the "Student Code" or "Code") is intended to present a clear statement of student rights and responsibilities established by the Board of Regents for Higher Education. The BOR has charged the President of the Board of Regents for Higher Education with developing procedures to protect those rights and to address the abdication of responsibilities in collaboration with the four State Universities, the twelve Community Colleges and Charter Oak State College.

The Student Code describes the types of acts that are not acceptable in an academic community.

Disclaimer: This Code is neither a contract nor an offer of a contract between any BOR governed institution and any student. The provisions of this Code are subject to revision at any time.

Part B: Applications, Distribution, and Administration of the Student Code of Conduct

1. Application of the Student Code: The Student Code shall apply to the four Connecticut State Universities, the twelve Community Colleges, and the on-line college:

Central Connecticut State University, Eastern Connecticut State University, Southern Connecticut State University, Western Connecticut State University; Asnuntuck Community College, Capital Community College, Gateway Community College, Housatonic Community College, Manchester Community College, Middlesex Community College, Naugatuck Valley Community College, Northwestern Connecticut Community College, Norwalk Community College, Quinebaug Valley Community College, Three Rivers Community College, Tunxis Community College, and Charter Oak State College.

An alleged violation of the Student Code shall be addressed in accordance with the Code of Conduct, even if the accused Student has withdrawn from the Institution prior to the completion of the disciplinary procedures.

The Student Code shall apply to Students and to University Student Organizations. The term "student" shall generally apply to the student as an individual and to a Student Organization as a single entity. The officers or leaders of a particular Student Organization usually will be expected to represent the organization during the disciplinary process. Nothing in this Student Code shall preclude holding certain members of a Student Organization accountable for their individual acts committed in the context of or in association with the organization's alleged violation of this Code.

2. Distribution of the Student Code: The Student Code shall be made readily available electronically and/or in a printed publication to students, faculty and staff. The office responsible for Student Affairs will annually distribute and make available to students, faculty and staff, electronically and/or in a printed publication, any revisions to the Code.

3. Administration of the Student Code: A University's and Charter Oak State College's Provost or a Community College's Dean of Student Affairs shall be the person designated by the institution CEO to be responsible for the administration of the Academic Misconduct portion of the Student Code. A University's Vice President for Student Affairs, a Community College's Dean of Student Affairs, or Charter Oak State College's Provost shall be the person designated by the institution CEO to be responsible for the administration of the Non-Academic Misconduct portion of the Student Code.

Part C: Scope of Authority

A Student who is found responsible for engaging in conduct that violates the Student Code on any CSCU campus or on property controlled by the BOR or by any CSCU Affiliate or any CSCU sponsored function or event shall be subject to the sanctions described in this Code. The Student Code of Conduct also applies to online activities, where applicable. Students who attempt to engage in conduct that violates this Code, who knowingly encourage, aid or assist another person in engaging in such conduct, or who agree with another person, explicitly or otherwise, to engage in such conduct, may also be subject to disciplinary action.

Off-campus misconduct by University students may be subject to the jurisdiction of the University and addressed through its disciplinary procedures if one of the following conditions is met: (i) a Student engages in prohibited conduct at an official University event, at a University-sanctioned event, or at an event sponsored by a recognized University Student Organization; or (ii) a Student engages in prohibited conduct under such circumstances that reasonable grounds exist for believing that the Accused Student poses a threat to the life, health or safety of any member of the CSCU or to the property of the CSCU.

Community College students conduct is subject to the Code on campus and off-campus whenever such conduct impairs College-related activities or affairs of another member of the College community or creates a risk of harm to a member or members of the College community. Students must be aware that, as citizens, they are subject to all federal and state laws in addition to all CSCU regulations governing student conduct and responsibilities. Students do not relinquish their rights nor do they shed their responsibilities as citizens by becoming members of the CSCU Community. However, where a court of law has found a student to have violated the law, an institution has the right to impose the sanctions of this Code even though the conduct does not impair institution-related activities of another member of the university or college community and does not create a risk of harm to the college or university community. The decision to exercise this right will be in the sole discretion of the CEO of the impacted institution or his/her designee.

Charter Oak State College applies this Code to matriculated and non-matriculated students, including those participating in portfolio assessment, credential evaluation, testing, or contract learning. Jurisdiction shall be limited to student conduct that occurs while students are taking Charter Oak State College courses or availing themselves of Charter Oak State College services. However, if a matriculated Charter Oak State College student is found guilty of student misconduct at another institution, including but not limited to misrepresentation of records from other institutions, the student may be subject to disciplinary action at Charter Oak State College.

Part D: Prohibited Conduct

The following list of behaviors is intended to represent the types of acts that constitute violations of this Code.

1. Academic misconduct, which includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism and all forms of cheating.

Plagiarism is defined as the submission of work by a student for academic credit as one's own work of authorship which contains work of another author without appropriate attribution.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to: (i) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests or examinations; (ii) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems or carrying out other assignments; (iii) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the University faculty or staff; and (iv) engaging in any other behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus.

2. Acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to the following:

a. Misuse of University or College documents, including, but not limited to forging, transferring, altering or otherwise misusing a student fee card, student payroll card, identification card or other College or University identification document, course registration document, schedule card, transcript, or any other institution-issued document or record.

b. Knowingly furnishing false information to any CSCU Official, faculty member or office.

3. Theft of property or services, or damage to, defacement or destruction of, or tampering with, real or personal property owned by the State of Connecticut, CSCU/BOR, the institution, or any member of the CSCU Community.

4. Actual or threatened physical assault or abuse, threatening behavior, intimidation, or coercion.

5. Sexual misconduct may include engaging in one or more behaviors:

(a) Sexual harassment, which can include any unwelcome sexual advance or request for sexual favors, or any conduct of a sexual nature when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's education; submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for academic decisions affecting the individual; or such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive educational environment. Examples of conduct which may constitute sexual harassment include but are not limited to:

- sexual flirtation, touching, advances or propositions

- verbal abuse of a sexual nature
- pressure to engage in sexual activity
- graphic or suggestive comments about an individual's dress or appearance
- use of sexually degrading words to describe an individual
- display of sexually suggestive objects, pictures or photographs
- sexual jokes
- stereotypic comments based upon gender
- threats, demands or suggestions that retention of one's educational status is contingent upon toleration of or acquiescence in sexual advances.

(b) Sexual assault shall include but is not limited to a sexual act directed against another person when that person is not capable of giving consent, which shall mean the voluntary agreement by a person in the possession and exercise of sufficient mental capacity to make a deliberate choice to do something proposed by another.

A person who initially consents to sexual activity shall be deemed not to have consented to any such activity which occurs after that consent is withdrawn. Consent cannot be assumed because there is no physical resistance or other negative response. A lack of consent may result from mental incapacity (e.g., ingestion of alcohol or drugs which significantly impair awareness or judgment) or physical incapacity (e.g., the person is unconscious or otherwise unable to communicate consent). Consent must be affirmative. (See Sexual Misconduct Reporting, Support Services and Processes Policy).

Sexual assault is further defined in sections 53a-70, 53a-70a, 53a-70b, 53a-71, 53a-72a, 53a-72b and 53a-73a of the Connecticut General Statutes.

(c) Sexual exploitation occurs when a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for anyone's advantage or benefit other than the person being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the preceding sexual misconduct offenses. Examples of behavior that could rise to the level of sexual exploitation include:

- Prostituting another person;
- Non-consensual visual (e.g., video, photograph) or audio-recording of sexual activity;
- Non-consensual distribution of photos, other images, or information of an individual's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness, with the intent to or having the effect of embarrassing an individual who is the subject of such images or information;
- Going beyond the bounds of consent (such as letting your friends hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex);
- Engaging in non-consensual voyeurism;
- Knowingly transmitting an STI, such as HIV to another without disclosing your STI status;
- Exposing one's genitals in non-consensual circumstances, or inducing another to expose his or her genitals; or
- Possessing, distributing, viewing or forcing others to view illegal pornography.

6. Intimate partner violence is defined as:

- Including intimate partner violence, which is any physical or sexual harm against an individual by a current or former spouse or by a partner in a dating relationship that results from (1) sexual assault, as defined in section 5 above; (2) sexual assault in a spousal or cohabiting relationship; (3) domestic violence; (4) sexual harassment, as defined in section 5 above or, (5) sexual exploitation, as defined in section 5 above.
- Physical abuse, which can include but is not limited to, slapping, pulling hair or punching.
- Threat of abuse, which can include but is not limited to, threatening to hit, harm or use a weapon on another (whether victim or acquaintance, friend or family member of the victim) or other forms of verbal threat.
- Emotional abuse, which can include but is not limited to, damage to one's property, driving recklessly to scare someone, name calling, threatening to hurt one's family members or pets and humiliating another person.

7. Violations of privacy, including, but not limited to, voyeurism and the use of web-based, electronic or other devices to make a photographic, audio or video record of any person without his or her express consent, when such a recording is intended or likely to cause injury or distress. This includes, but is not limited to: (i) surreptitiously taking pictures or videos of another person in spaces such as sleeping areas, bathrooms, gymnasiums, locker rooms, and changing areas; and (ii) sexually exploiting another person by electronically recording or permitting others to view or electronically record, consensual sexual activity without a partner's knowledge or permitting others to view or listen to such video or audio tapes without a partner's knowledge and consent. Publicizing or threatening to publicize such records will also be considered a violation of this Code.

8. Hazing, which is defined as an act which endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a Student, or which destroys, damages, or removes public or private property for the purpose of initiation or admission into, affiliation with or as a condition for continued membership in a group or organization. The express or implied consent of the victim will not be a defense to an allegation of hazing. Consenting to the activity by remaining silent or not objecting in the presence of hazing is not a neutral act and is also a violation of this Student Code.

9. Stalking, which is defined as repeatedly contacting another person when:

- a. The contacting person knows or should know that the contact is unwanted by the other person; and
- b. The contact causes the other person reasonable apprehension of imminent physical harm or the contacting person knows or should know that the contact causes substantial impairment of the other person's ability to perform the activities of daily life.

A student’s disciplinary record shall be maintained separately from any other academic or official file maintained by the Institution. Disciplinary records will be maintained for a period of five (5) years from the date of the incident, except that the sanction of expulsion shall be noted permanently.

While student education records are generally protected from disclosure by FERPA, there are a number of exceptions to this rule. Students should be aware that a record concerning his/her behavior while a student at the College or University may be shared with other colleges or universities to which the student may subsequently wish to transfer or be admitted. Similarly, prospective employers may require a student to provide access to his/her education records as part of the employment application process. A record of having been sanctioned for conduct that violates Section I.D. of the Code may disqualify a student for admission to another college or university, and may interfere with his/her selection for employment.

Part G: Interpretation and Revision

Questions regarding the interpretation of this Code shall be referred to the University’s and Charter Oak State College’s Provost or a Community College’s Dean of Student Affairs or their designees for the administration of the Non-Academic Misconduct portion of the Student Code and to the University’s Vice President for Student Affairs, a Community College’s Dean of Academic Affairs or Charter Oak State College’s Provost or their designees for the administration of the Academic Misconduct portion of the Student Code.

This Code shall be reviewed and revised, if and as necessary, every five (5) years, or as directed by the President of the Board of Regents for Higher Education.

III. Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures Applicable to Community College Students

Procedures for Community College students differ from those procedures applicable to either the Universities or Charter Oak State College. This is due to the environmental, cultural and administrative differences within the types of the institutions comprising CSCU. Procedures for addressing allegations and sanctions regarding academic misconduct (as defined in Section I.D.1 above) for Community College Students as set for in this Section III of the Code.

Part A: Disciplinary Procedures (Academic and Non-Academic Misconduct)

In regard to College Students, the following procedures shall govern the enforcement of the Code:

1. Information that a student may have violated the Code should be submitted to the Dean of Student Affairs, Dean of Academic Affairs or other designee of the CEO (hereinafter referred to as “the Dean”), normally within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of a possible violation or within thirty (30) calendar days of the date that the facts constituting a possible violation were known.

2. Upon receipt of information relating to a possible violation, the Dean may immediately place restrictions on or suspend a student on an interim basis if, in the judgment of the Dean, the continued presence of the student at the College or continued participation in the full range of college activities poses a danger to persons or property or constitutes an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process.

- a. “Interim restrictions” are limitations on the Student’s participation in certain College functions and activities, access to certain locations on campus or access to certain persons, that do not prevent the Student from continuing to pursue his/her academic program. A Student upon whom the Dean has placed interim restrictions shall be afforded written reasons for the restrictions, as well as the time period during which the interim restrictions shall apply. The decision of the Dean regarding interim restrictions shall be final.

b. "Interim suspension" is the temporary separation of the Student from the College that involves the denial of all privileges, including entrance to College premises. Prior to imposing an interim suspension, the Dean shall make a good faith effort to meet with the Student. At this meeting, the Dean shall inform the Student of the information received and provide the Student an opportunity to present other information for the Dean's consideration. Based upon the information available at that time, the Dean shall determine whether the Student's continued presence on campus poses a danger to persons or property or constitutes an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process. A Student suspended on an interim basis by the Dean shall be provided written reasons for the suspension and shall be entitled to an administrative conference or a hearing as soon as possible, normally within ten (10) calendar days from the date the interim suspension was imposed. The decision of the Dean regarding an interim suspension shall be final.

3. Following the imposition of interim restrictions or interim suspension, if any, the Dean shall promptly investigate the information received by meeting with individuals who may have knowledge of the matter, including the accused Student, and by reviewing all relevant documents. If upon the conclusion of the Dean's investigation, the Dean determines that there is insufficient reason to believe the Student has committed a violation of any part of Section I.D. of this Policy, the Dean shall dismiss the matter and shall so inform the Student in writing.

4. If upon the conclusion of the Dean's investigation, the Dean determines that there is reason to believe the Student has committed a violation of any part of Section I. D. of this Code and, after considering both the possible violation and the prior conduct record of the Student, that a sanction of less than suspension or expulsion is appropriate, the Dean shall schedule an administrative conference with the Student. The Student shall be given reasonable notice of the time and place of the conference. At the administrative conference, the Student shall have the opportunity to present information for the Dean's consideration. At the conclusion of the administrative conference, the Dean shall determine whether it is more likely than not that the Student has violated the Policy and, if so, impose a sanction less than suspension or expulsion. The Dean shall provide the Student with a written explanation for the determination. The decision of the Dean shall be final.

5. If upon the conclusion of the Dean's investigation, the Dean determines that there is reason to believe the Student has committed a violation of any part of Section I.D. of this Code and, after considering both the violation and the prior conduct record of the Student, that a sanction of suspension or expulsion is appropriate, the Dean shall provide the Student with reasonable written notice of a meeting and shall inform the Student that his/her failure to attend the meeting or to respond to the notice may result in the imposition of the maximum permissible sanction. At the meeting, the Dean shall provide the Student with a written statement that shall include the following:

- a. a concise statement of the alleged facts;
- b. the provision(s) of Section I.D. that appear to have been violated;
- c. the maximum permissible sanction; and
- d. a statement that the student may resolve the matter by mutual agreement with the Dean, or may request a hearing by notifying the Dean in writing, which must be received by 5:00pm on the following business day.

6. If the Student requests a hearing, he/she is entitled to the following:

- a. to be heard within five (5) days or as soon as reasonably possible, by an impartial party or panel whose members shall be appointed by the Dean;
- b. if the Dean appoints an impartial panel, to have a Student on the panel if requested by the Student;
- c. to appear in person and to have an advisor who not shall attend as a representative of the Student. However, if there is pending at the time of the hearing a criminal matter pertaining to the same incident that is the subject of the hearing, a lawyer may be present for the sole purpose of observing the proceedings and advising the Student concerning the effect of the proceedings on the pending criminal matter;
- d. to hear and to question the information presented;
- e. to present information, to present witnesses, and to make a statement on his or her behalf; and

f. to receive a written decision following the hearing.

7. As used herein, the term “impartial” shall mean that the individual was not a party to the incident under consideration and has no personal interest in the outcome of the proceedings. Prior to the commencement of the hearing, the Student who is subject to the hearing may challenge the appointment of an impartial party or panel member on the ground that the person(s) is (are) not impartial. The challenge shall be made in writing to the Dean and shall contain the reasons for the assertion that the person(s) is (are) not impartial. The decision of the Dean shall be final.

8. The written decision of the impartial party or panel shall specify whether, based on the information presented, it is more likely than not that the Student committed the violation(s) reported and shall state the sanction to be imposed, if any. The written decision shall be provided to the Student.

9. Sanctions imposed by an impartial party or panel are effective immediately. The CEO may, for good cause, suspend imposition of the sanctions imposed by the impartial party or panel to allow the Student time to prepare a written request for review. If a written request is received, the CEO may continue to suspend imposition of the sanctions until he has reviewed and acted on the Student’s request.

10. A written request for review of the decision of the impartial party or panel must be received by the CEO within three (3) calendar days after the Student is notified of the decision and must clearly identify the grounds for review. The review by the CEO is limited to the record of the hearing, the written request, and any supporting documentation submitted with the request by the Student. The decision of the impartial party or the panel shall be upheld unless the CEO finds that:

- a. a violation of the procedures set forth herein significantly prejudiced the Student; and/or
- b. the information presented to the impartial party or panel was not substantial enough to justify the decision; and/or,
- c. the sanction(s) imposed was (were) disproportionate to the seriousness of the violation.

11. Decisions under this procedure shall be made only by the college officials indicated.

Part B: Disciplinary Sanctions

The prior conduct record of a Student shall be considered in determining the appropriate sanction for a Student who has been found to have violated any part of Section I.D. of this Code. Sanctions shall be progressive in nature; that is, more serious sanctions may be imposed if warranted by the prior conduct record of the Student.

A “sanction” may be any action affecting the status of an individual as a Student taken by the College in response to a violation of this Policy, and for the purposes of this Section III of the Code include but are not limited to the following:

1. “Expulsion” is a permanent separation from the College that involves denial of all Student privileges, including entrance to College premises;
2. “Suspension” is a temporary separation from the College that involves denial of all Student privileges, including entrance to college premises for the duration of the suspension, and may include conditions for reinstatement;
3. “Removal of College Privileges” involves restrictions on Student access to certain locations, functions and/or activities but does not preclude the Student from continuing to pursue his/her academic program;
4. “Probation” is a status that indicates either (a) serious misconduct not warranting expulsion, suspension, or removal of College privileges, or (b) repetition of misconduct after a warning has been imposed;
5. A “Warning” is a written notice to the Student indicating that he or she has engaged in conduct that is in violation of Section I.D. of this Code and that any repetition of such conduct or other conduct that violates this Code is likely to result in more serious sanctions;
6. “Community Restitution” requires a Student to perform a number of hours of service on the campus or in the community at large.
